Dear Alva Smith,

In response to your letter of October 30, 1998, ReMUR4830, the facts are as following:

On April 20, 1998, I sent a check for $1,000 to the Udall for Us All Committee for the primary Congressional campaign of Attorney General Tom Udall.

Subsequently, during the summer, I received a phone call from Mr. Udall, informing me that he had won the primary election.

On August 8, 1998, I sent a check for $1,000 to the Udall for Us All Committee for the general election.

It is my understanding that a citizen is allowed to contribute $1,000 for a primary election and $1,000 for a general election to a Congressional candidate in a single election campaign. Therefore, I see no violation of the election laws on my part.

Sincerely yours,

Neil Rolde
